ABOUT

Chris Lippincott is an international psychic medium, bestselling author, podcast host and spiritual teacher whose evidential readings and unique information from spirit helps transform people's lives. Through his evidential mediumship, Chris provides comfort, healing and knowledge that our loved ones in spirit are alive and well and still care about us.

It's Chris' mission to help raise the spiritual awareness and vibration of humanity through his mediumship, teaching, podcast, books and his frequent appearances on other podcasts.

Additionally, using his trance mediumship, Chris shares healing messages from his spirit guides with the world. It's his goal to bring this love and healing to the world using spirit's words. Chris also teaches the fundamentals of mediumship to those on their spiritual journey and spreads spirit's teachings.

Chris has trained with some of the world's most well respected mediums (many from England's renowned Arthur Findlay College) including Tony Stockwell, James Van Praagh, Andy Byng, Colin Bates, Martin Twycross, Rev. Janet Nohavec, Josef Siegle and Lee VanZyl.

While aware of spirit as a child, it wasn't until after a profound spiritual awakening later in life that Chris developed his abilities to communicate with spirit. He has studied the spirit world and metaphysics for over 20 years.

Chris is a husband and father who lives in a New Jersey suburb outside of New York City.

TALK TOPICS

#1 How to Raise Your Spiritual Awareness Without Giving up Your Religion.

Spirituality is one's individual connection to a source energy greater than all of us. This is a loving energy that permeates everything in existence. We can learn to connect with Source and our higher self to raise our spiritual awareness without giving up any of our religious beliefs.

#2 How to Connect With Your Loved Ones Without Being a Medium.

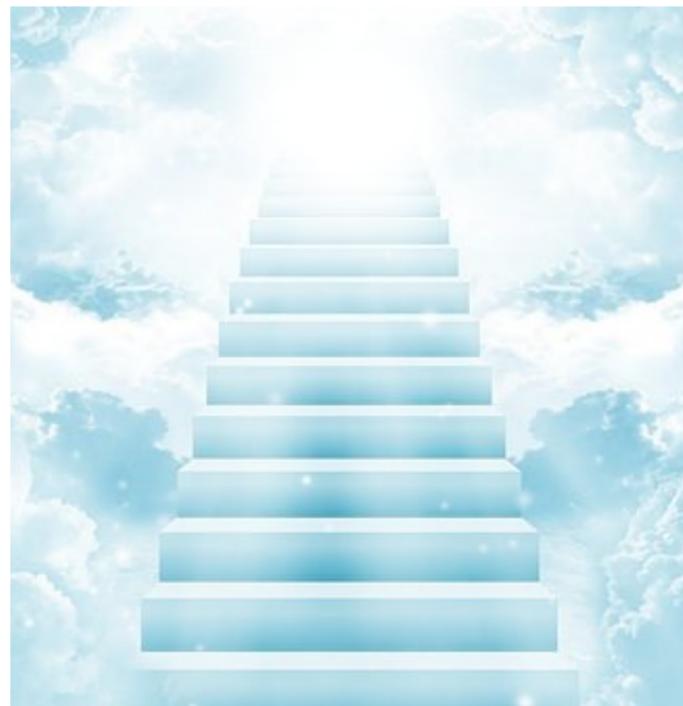

There are numerous ways to initiate a strong connection with the spirit world and receive detailed evidence from those around us who want to offer their transformative love and healing. We are never alone on our journey.

#3 How to Quickly Overcome the Grief From Losing a Loved One Without Feeling Guilty.

When our loved ones pass on, we often enter into inconsolable grief. However they truly live on, just as vibrant as before but exist in another realm, somewhat similar to living on another continent that we can't contact. With this knowledge, we can regain our joy, for that is what they want for us as they offer us their love.

#4 How to Know There is an Afterlife and What Happens When We Transition to Spirit.

Over the last 150 years, there have been 1,000's of automatic writings and books written by spirit describing what their transition was like and what their world is now. Furthermore, this same evidence comes through in countless mediumship readings, validating these descriptions.

CHRIS'S AUDIENCE

Chris helps the bereaved and those in need of healing hear from and stay in contact with their loved ones in spirit to receive their transformative love and healing messages. He also assists those on their spiritual journey to raise their spiritual awareness and achieve a higher consciousness through spiritual growth.

Chris was absolutely phenomenal! I wanted my love, my soulmate, Logan to come through and I was not disappointed! Chris had no idea of my desires concerning this. He validated my Logan more ways than I can count. Logan came through, and true to his character, with a bang. I can honestly say this was the most touching, and heartwarming, joyful experience I have had thus far with a medium. It was so BEAUTIFUL, just like Logan and my love. Chris was even floored by the communication! Chris has a gift UNLIKE any that I have seen. He is genuine, and he brings forth your loved one AS THEY ARE. No question about it. Thank you Chris for sharing your gift and bringing a healing that I did not think was possible. I have a peace about me that I have not had since Logan crossed over. I thank you for this Chris, and thank you to the spirit world for their uncanny ways and creativity to communicate.

Chris was everything and more that I expected. He held my pain with such compassion and not only was able to connect with my beautiful daughter, he took the time to do a powerful and much needed meditation to help me raise my vibration and help with my grief. His ethics and commitment to helping us receive comfort, peace and restoration of faith that our love ones truly exist shines through and show us that our loved ones are here to guide us. This is his true calling and for those of us who choose to trust him we are the lucky ones. Thank you Chris.
