MELBOURNE 2025

Neurodivergent Clinician Symposium Event Program | Wednesday 3 September

8:30	Registrations Open
9:00	Lydia Meem: Welcome & What to Expect
9:30	First Nations Speaker on Neurodiversity/Mental Health
10:00	Morning Tea	Boardroom: BIPOC/CALD/CARM Morning Tea
10:25	Adelle Sushames: Affirming Practice for AuDHDers - Creating Pathways to Self-Understanding and Self-Compassion
11:20	Stretch Break
11:25	Bianca Comfort: Working with Neurodivergent Clients with Chronic Health Conditions including Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome (EDS) and Postural Orthostatic Tachycardia Syndrome (POTS)
12:20	Interview with Siobhan Wilson: A Young Entrepreneur and Author with Non-Verbal Learning Disorder and Prosopagnosia
12:35	Lunch	Speakers Table: Adelle Sushames - Creator of Spoon Savers, Spoon Thieves & ND Me Cards
1:30	Christina Schmidt: Supporting Alternative Communication: Enhancing Accessibility and Cultural Care for Neurodivergent AAC Users from CARM/CALD Backgrounds	Jennifer Kemp: Supporting Neurodivergent Clients with Rejection Sensitive Dysphoria
2:30	Stretch Break & Opportunity to Move Between Rooms
2:40	Adelle Kent: Building Safety - Size-Inclusive, Trauma-Informed Approaches for Neurodivergent Eating Disorder Recovery (including ARFID)	Sam Van Der Wijngaart: Forensic Psychology can be Accurate and Affirming - Working with Clients with Intellectual Disability
3:35	Afternoon Tea	Speakers Table: Jennifer Kemp - Co-Author of "The Neurodivergence Skills Workbook for Autism and ADHD"
4:00	Dr Krishna Solanki: Pearls of Pharmacotherapy in Neurobehavioural Pediatrics - The Art of Balancing Medications and Other Supports
4:45	Dr Erin Robinson: Event Wrap-Up & Gratitude
	Dr Erin Robinson: Even	it wrap-op & Gratitude

Note: This event schedule is subject to change. We will make every effort to keep to the planned timeline, but unforeseen circumstances or adjustments for the best participant experience may require modifications. Please stay tuned for any updates or announcements during the event. Thank you for your understanding and flexibility.

MELBOURNE 2025

Neurodivergent Clinician Symposium Event Program | Thursday 4 September

0.20	Port to the
8:30	Registrations Open
9:00	Lydia Meem: Welcome Back & Making the Most of Day 2
9:15	Lydia Meem: Creating a Neurodivers from First Contact to Report V	sity-Affirming Assessment Experience Vriting and Feedback Sessions
10:15	Morning Tea	Boardroom: LGBTQIA+ Morning Tea
10:40	Dr Krishna Solanki: What's My Colour on the Rainbow? Seven Autistic Profiles in Children and Young People
11:25	Stretch Break
11.30	Panel: Neurodivergent Burnout and School Can't
12:00	Interview: NDIS Quality & Safeguards Commission
12:30	Lunch	Speaker's Table: Lydia Meem, Author of "Beyond IQ Scores Handbook" and Creator of "Neurodiversity Affirming Clinician"
1:30	Claire Britton: Nothing About Us Without Us - Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces	Yael Clark: Holding the Line - Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes in Neurodiversity-Affirming Spaces
1:30	Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces	Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes
	Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces	Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes in Neurodiversity-Affirming Spaces
2:20	Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces  Stretch Break & Opportuni  Erin Robinson: Wired to Move, Built to Create - Rethinking ADHD Through a Lens	Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes in Neurodiversity-Affirming Spaces  ty to Move Between Rooms  Dr Leah Dunne: Reflections from a Late-Diagnosed
2:20	Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces  Stretch Break & Opportuni  Erin Robinson: Wired to Move, Built to Create - Rethinking ADHD Through a Lens of Creativity and Movement  Afternoon Tea  Sonny Jane Wise: Thinking Beyond Autism 6	Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes in Neurodiversity-Affirming Spaces  ty to Move Between Rooms  Dr Leah Dunne: Reflections from a Late-Diagnosed AuDHDer working in General Practice  Speaker's Table: Dr Krishna Solanki, Author of "What's My Colour on the Rainbow?"
2:20 2:30 3:20	Inclusive Conversations around Neurodiversity-Affirming Supports and Accommodations in Schools and Workplaces  Stretch Break & Opportuni  Erin Robinson: Wired to Move, Built to Create - Rethinking ADHD Through a Lens of Creativity and Movement  Afternoon Tea  Sonny Jane Wise: Thinking Beyond Autism and Broadening our Understanding	Accountability and Safety for Practitioners of All Neurotypes in Neurodiversity-Affirming Spaces  ty to Move Between Rooms  Dr Leah Dunne: Reflections from a Late-Diagnosed AuDHDer working in General Practice  Speaker's Table: Dr Krishna Solanki, Author of "What's My Colour on the Rainbow?"  and ADHD - Challenging Neuro-Normativity

Note: This event schedule is subject to change. We will make every effort to keep to the planned timeline, but unforeseen circumstances or adjustments for the best participant experience may require modifications. Please stay tuned for any updates or announcements during the event. Thank you for your understanding and flexibility.