

Relationship Health Matters Organisation Network

Starter Membership

Currently with a Free Starter Pack!

Empower your organisation to enhance its understanding of relationship health with our Starter Membership. This offer is designed for organisations looking to introduce and support discussion and action to promote relationship health within their teams, communities, or services. Join our growing network and gain access to essential resources, support, and connection opportunities.

What's Included:

- Relationship Health Book Pack for Staff Room: Curated books to spark meaningful conversations and learning around relationship health.
- Personalised Information Pack: Tailored materials to help you introduce the concept of relationship health to your staff and stakeholders.
- Invite to Regular In-Person Events (2x a Year): Connect with like-minded professionals and organisations to discuss best practices and insights on relationship health.
- Podcasts to Circulate: Engaging audio content to share with your team, offering actionable ideas and reflections on fostering healthier relationships.
- Ideas for Discussions of the Netflix Film Adolescence: Thought-provoking prompts and resources for exploring relationship dynamics in the context of adolescent development.

Cost: £100 per annum

Why Join?

As part of our Relationship Health Matters Network, you'll be getting started with the ideas, tools and support to move forward a thriving environment where an understanding of relationship health can flourish for staff, parents and young people. Join today and start your journey towards building stronger, more connected communities and organisations.