OPERATIONAL DOSSIER: ACTIVE ASSET

CLASSIFICATION: TOP SECRET // CODEWORD: OBSIDIAN

SUBJECT FILE: DRAKE, JOHN M.

FILE REF: CIA-OPS-MOW-7741-D

RECORD ID: 4492-DRAKE-J

STATUS: FIELD OPERATIVE (UNCONTROLLED)

LAST KNOWN LOCATION: MOSCOW SECTOR

BIOGRAPHIC DATA:

- Height/Weight: 6'1" / 192 lbs.
- Distinguishing Marks: 3.2 cm scar, left jaw. Two healed 7.62mm GSW entry/exit wounds, right shoulder.
- Background: Two combat tours with 1st Marine Reconnaissance Battalion (Fallujah/Helmand). Twelve-year CIA field operative. Currently operating under a paper-thin NOC legend as a commercial attaché in Moscow.

PSYCHOLOGICAL PROFILE: Subject is sardonic where other operatives are earnest, and dangerous where others are merely competent. Exhibits a low tolerance for bureaucratic performance and an absolute indifference to personal risk. He is not reckless, but his continued survival reads less like luck and more like a personal philosophy. Drake does not trust institutions or authority; he trusts demonstrated competence and raw results. Emotionally self-sufficient to a degree that crosses into functional isolation. No permanent U.S. address, no personal relationships, no pets.

OPERATIONAL THREAT ASSESSMENT: SEVERE Drake is a "natural"—an operative whose instincts consistently outperform his briefings. He does not work well within established command structures. He is currently operating inside Moscow without administrative oversight, pulling threads connected to the highly classified ██████████ program.

INTERNAL HANDLER INTELLIGENCE:

"John operates on pure instinct and contrarianism. If you tell him to go left, he goes right. If you tell him to stop, he finds out what you didn't want him to see. The correct handling approach is to suggest, lightly, that the wrong answer is the one you need him to find." — Sarah ██████████, Moscow Assets Division.
