When feedback
is offered with
kind intent,
to help others
succeed, it is a generous
gift indeed.

Kind leaders
focus on the good...

And...

Help their people get better with
those things
they can tweak to become even better.

Building on
successes,
every day.

Kind leaders
know that feedback must be without
fear, to be helpful
providing opportunities
that can be easily
grasped.

What's more...

The potential
within any individual is
always there,
and feedback
provides the
focus to achieve
it.

For any leader,
feedback is one
of the kindest
things you can provide to your people.

Three steps you can take today.

1. Catch three people doing something right and tell them.

2. Suggest a change to make something 'even better'.

3. Give yourself positive feedback.
