New Paradigm Leadership

- Leadership is Mastery
- Mastery is Leadership
- The Third Pillar of Right Livlihood
- Part of the Mystics Path

New Paradigm: New ways of approaching situations, experiences, and constructs. The paradox of the Modern Mystic is that the new paradigm is often accessed through the alchemy of remembering and visioning.

Excerpt: The Mystics Path, 2020

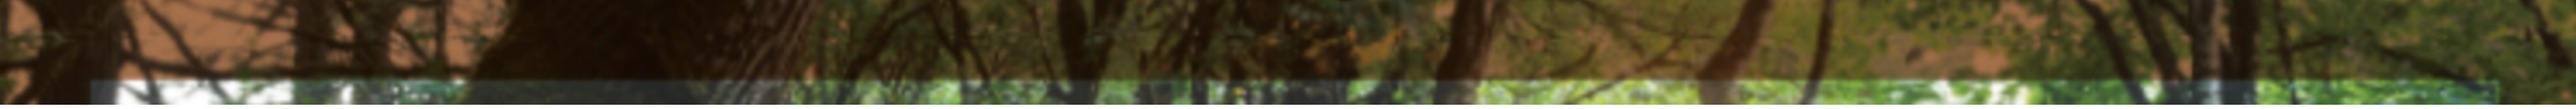

8 Attributes of the New Paradigm Leader

1. Accessing your "Why" - Your why keeps you connected to the divine flow, which brings resonance and prosperity
2. Your Zone of Genius - The more you can delegate the heaviness and stay true to your own zone of genius the more you can shine your light and claim your power.
3. Do the Inner Work - Look at what's happening for you, invite the resistance in, explore it, dialog with it, acknowledge it, accept it and let alchemy happen. How can you gain deeper understanding and awareness from this?
4. Sacred Commerce - Most of us have some kind of story we hold about money. If you're truly connected to your why, in your zone, and doing your work, then you're already in the realm of sacred commerce. Step outside of your old story and allow the universe to provide divine exchange for your unique gifts.
5. Embody Sacred Masculine and Divine Feminine - We all embody both energies. Our continued, balanced personal growth and development demands that we bring the feminine and masculine energies into a dynamic balance.
6. Emotional Alchemy - How we learn from our emotional experience is a huge vector for sinking into our feminine power and leadership.
7. Community - It is truly time to embrace community. The more we can be in circle with a support system of like-minded people, the more we can accelerate our leadership journey. Community exposes us to new ideas and opportunities. Invite in those who are willing to push you, to mirror you, to show you where you're on and where you aren't, to shed light on your shadows.
8. Cocreation - I'm passionate about this. Ultimately, co-creating with others is a step towards co-creation with the divine. Bringing many minds together to create something new is where true power manifests. We are not alone, we are all one. Co-creation brings your ideas into the realm of magic, amplifying all of our abilities to answer the call.

Sacred Inquiry of the New Paradigm Leader

- What questions should we be asking?
- Have we spoken the lineage? the Unspokens?
- Are we in Unity? (different than “agreeing”)
    - Upright? (akin to integrity)
    - Resonant? (see ACAR)
- What are the seen and unseen forces (influences) at play? (Ex: bias)
- How do we do it?
- Where is community? (#together)
- What are the steps toward leadership?
- What new vocabulary is needed?
- How can it be more inclusive? More diverse? More just?
- How can we invite more ease, grace, truth?
- These are just some of the questions…

All rights reserved © copyright 2015 | LindsayPera.com | Mystic's Society

Peacemaking

- Peacemaking is a sacred practice, path and for some, an oath…

Peacemaker Vows Peacemaking is the place of non-judgment, kindness, and unconditional love for yourself and others. It breeds tolerance and support. Being a peacemaker means you do not walk alone. It means you walk in connection with all your relations. As a peacemaker, you recognize the power of your upright mind, open heart, and connective words. You feel a profound desire to do no harm, to connect people, and to witness their stories with deep listening. As a peacemaker, you value your relationship with yourself, with others, and with the collective. Peacemakers honor every individual, large or small, and appreciate all of creation and one another.

Remember: Leadership is a journey…

Mastery Cannot be Rushed

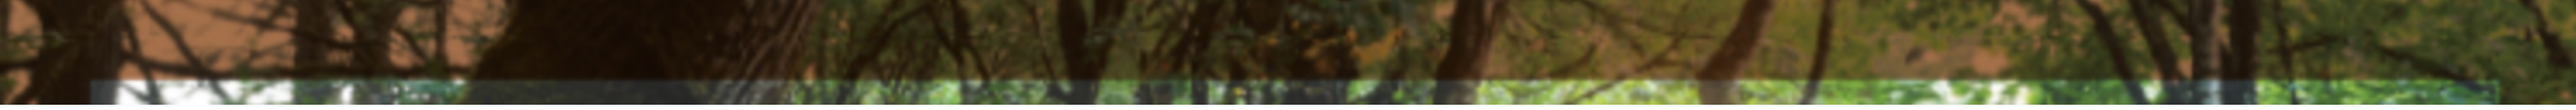

Allow yourself the time, place, and space to integrate before you move on to outward work so that it comes from a place of authenticity. You won't help anyone by advocating for something yo don't truly embody. Walk your own path, your own wheel, and your own rings to alignment. Honor the cyclical nature of growth and transformation. Your mastery, leadership, and legacy will grow as you truly walk your talk.
