  - You are distinct but weaving
  - You are "manifesting all the time:
  - Therefore….so it your business.
- Your INTENTION matters (revisit Magic Triangle)

Magic Triangle

The key to making magic in life, business and beyond…

Alchemy = I + C + C
I: Intention
C: Container
C: Creation

Intention

In spirit…
~ Intention
~ Desire
~ Vision
~ Expression

Container

In form…
~ Spaces
~ Altars
~ Programs
~ Circles
~ Website, etc.

Creation

In motion…
~ Aligned Action + Alchemy
~ Actual steps
~ Leaving room for Magic!

The Prism Process

Start here: State your desire

Step 1: How will manifesting that desire make you feel?

Step 2: How can you create experiences that evoke those feelings for you?

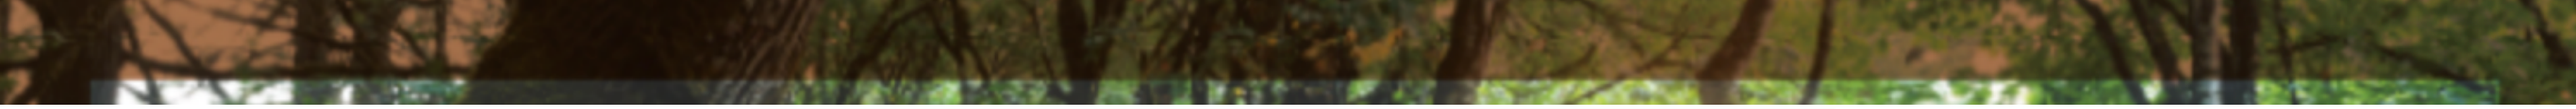

Step 3: How can you create visual cues that support those feelings for you (vision board? words on your bathroom mirror? a screen saver on your iPhone?) These are little visual reminders that catch your attention and remind you of your desire

Step 4: How can you speak your desire out out and be witnessed?

Step 5: How can you give the very thing you seek (get creative with this one - it is super powerful)

Step 6: how can you source gratitude from right where you are - and in so doing continue to align to the perfection in this moment - as all manifestation happens right here in the NOW.

Together these steps create a “prism’ of your desires. A multi-faceted beatutiul custom experience in support of what you are calling in. The prism process is a fun, gentle way to invite fruition of your goals and desires.

Resonance Model

Mystics Society
Purpose. Passion. Prosperity.

Resonance or ACAR

Our resonance is the energetic or vibration we are putting out. It is the frequency at which we create - it therefore affects the frequency of what we attract. The process described here helps walk you through the key attributes that affect your resonance and helps you identify where you can refine your practice, presence or message to be in better alignment with your intentions and divine path.

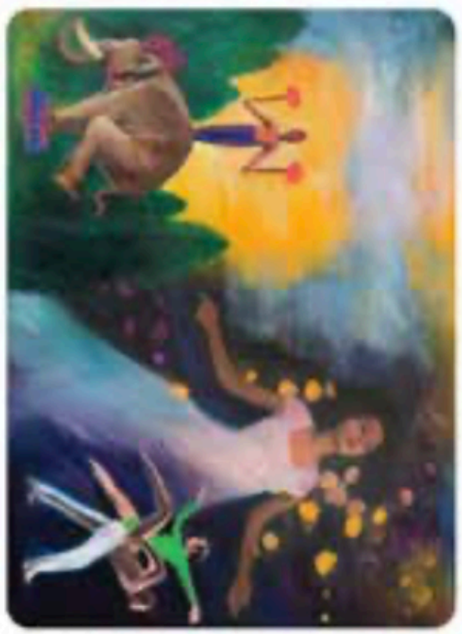

ACAR is actually a formula

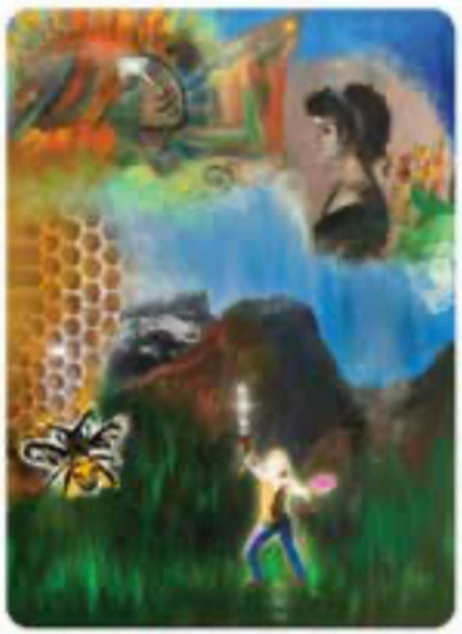

Basically, the idea is that how well you know yourself, how you project yourself and show up in the world, and how you align to your intention or audience directly impacts how you are received by the world.

Am I a modern mystic?

Modern Mystics

Deep within us all is a memory, a wellspring of magic and mystery that is beginning to return as an expression in our modern time.

You are awakening to the deeper understanding that you are a part of the great divine.

This unity gives you access to a stronger inner power and a more direct line to the life force. A global remembrance is occurring, and you are on the transition team. This reawakening is bringing you back into your innate rhythms. It is realigning you to the seasons, natural cycles, and energies all around you. It is activating the magic within your internal connections, the bond between all humans, and in our collective relationship with the Source.
