Spring Is In The Air

And as Mother Nature allows, we find ourselves on the verge of a new season!

It feels as though we are on a bridge between seasons filled with the new year's intentions/envisioned potentials, and the faint sniffs and whiffs of true Spring and the blossoming time ahead. What does standing on that bridge feel like for you? Hopefully, there's a sense of newness, excitement, and enthusiasm. Our BOT and we, here at National, are quite excited, enthused, and inspired by the results of our recent Ministerial Satisfaction Survey that 95 ministers completed! For those of you who responded, we thank you for sharing your voices with us. And for those who did not feel called to take that opportunity, we hope you'll be inspired to do that on the next go-round. To everything there is a season...

The Timeless Love of Twin Souls

by Janet Kay Darling

Your twin soul, your soul mate or your lifetime partner are all expressions of love being present in your life. They are there for the purposes of bringing you exactly what you need when you are most in need of it.

This is because people come into your life so as to be with you in certain ways that you are not consciously aware of. Although you may not appreciate it, they are actually your teachers where you in turn teach them valuable lessons which they are in need of.

Spring Into New Growth and New Beginnings

By Rev. Dr. Peg Gordon

Spring is by far my favorite time of year, and also one of my busiest times of year. Both of my children were born in March. Everything feels so fresh and new in the Spring. It's a wonderful time for new beginnings.

The Weakest Link

By Rev. Brian Kirsch

I looked up the meaning to what is meant by "The Weakest Link". Here's what I found: "The person who is making the least contribution to the collective achievement of a group." Let's play with this idea for a moment.

Working with organizations in the past that "helped the less fortunate" always ...
