

Peace in your Presence Continued

Speak the Language of Horse Culture (SRG)

- * Sweep
- * Release
- * Ground

* This form of equine language, based on horse culture, is an important element in building relationship and creating the peace your horse feels in your presence. This is an equine language and your horse is pleased that you speak it!

* It is observed that a mare performs this type of communication with her foal when she is reassuring them all is safe and well or when her foal is experiencing anxiety

* She will run her muzzle along the back of the foal, down the hind leg, touch the ground, and often walk away
