Atlanta Wellness Ecosystem

Media Guide

Atlanta Wellness Ecosystem is a Digital Magazine designed to support people in Atlanta as they embark on their own personal wellness journeys. Our audience wants to learn how they can implement and improve one dimension of wellness in their lives at a time. Our experts will share their practical tips on wellness in one of these core areas: emotional, intellectual, occupational, physical, environmental, financial, spiritual, social, or habitual. We created this Digital Magazine as a resource for anyone who is looking to integrate the Nine Elements of Holistic Wellness (NEHW) into their daily lives.

Distribution & Readership

We designed the Atlanta Wellness Ecosystem as a Digital Magazine to be easily shared. We encourage our readers to share the magazine with their networks. We are different from most marketing options out there. We do not track our distribution, we track the impact our magazine has on our advertisers.
