Walking the Path of Gratitude

To take part in the Live Stream you will receive a link to a meeting room, you sign in through the given link on GoToMeeting and have your microphone off, there is a chat box where you can write your questions and we will see to them now and then and answer the ones that we feel relevant to the energy of the group. You can turn on your microphone if there is anything specific you want to make me aware of.

You will also get an invitation to a private Facebook group where we will go Live during the meditations and on outdoor activities.

The Livestream will start European Central Time 2 pm on Sunday and finish Thursday at 12 noon.

Our days usually looks like this (but I am very flexible following where ever the energy is taking me)

Sunday -2 pm start, 6:30 dinner, 8 pm evening activation

Mon-wed -start 9 am, 12:30 lunch, 2:30 pm class, 6:30 pm dinner, 8 pm evening activation

Thursday -start 9 am, closing 12 noon

When you have signed up I will send you the login details to GoToMeeting where our meeting room will be.

Love to sit in circle with you
