The Alliance of Divine Love Newsletter

MAY 2023

Have you noticed that people naturally start to celebrate in the month of May? Maybe it's because we remember the exultation of getting out of school ourselves around this time of year.

We'll use any excuse to celebrate. Whatever the reason, there's a holiday this month for everybody. For the whimsical, there's Star Wars Day, Mother Goose Day, and Dance Like a Chicken Day. For a patriotic twist, there's National Armed Forces Day, Coronation Day and, of course, Memorial Day.

Eat something delicious on Cinco de Mayo, Coconut Cream Pie Day or National Barbecue Day. Gather with your family on Mothers Day, National Brothers and Sisters Day, or National Visit Relatives Day. Just don't plan to leave the house on May 5. That's National No Pants Day!

New Bylaws

For ADL Ministers

The Board has approved the working Bylaws of ADL at this time, which will be reviewed ongoing, and would appreciate input from the membership.

Please review the Bylaws and send your comments to: office@allianceofdivinelove.org

Having the Bylaws in place now allows us to hold elections and present the revised Bylaws to the membership for ratification at the National Meeting in August.

Reflection: 2023 Annual ADL Conference

by Rev. Dr. Laurie Anderer

Greetings,

Alliance of Divine Love is excited to offer an in-person conference this year.

The theme is "Reflection".

We have chosen a great location, Portland, Maine at the Holiday Inn by the Bay.

Save the date August 24th thru 27th 2023.

Rev. Dr. Barbara Selwa, our founder, will be the key note speaker. She has new teachings and knowledge from her spirit...

Wise Words Wednesday with Rev. Deb

by Rev. Debbie Holden

We've added a new category to the ADL Blog - a VLOG section.

What is a vlog? A vlog is a blog in video form; short for a video blog or video log.

Check out Rev. Debbie Holden with her weekly video series "Wise Words Wednesday with Rev. Deb".

The Process of Acknowledging

by Rev. Rita Scheibeck

This week I'd like to share the second verb of my benediction, which is "acknowledge." To acknowledge is a more intellectual process than the other verbs of the benediction. It is a statement of receiving and agreeing that a fact or a belief is accurate.

When I acknowledge my affirmations and prayers, I admit to and concede the truth of what I have spoken from a mental standpoint...

The Act of Allowing

by Rev. Rita Scheibeck

I am frequently asked about the closing statement to my meditations. When I write my prayers and affirmations, I always end them with the benediction: "I now allow, acknowledge, accept and affirm that these things are so."

This week I will focus on the first verb of this phrase, "allow." To allow means that I give permission to the ideas that I have spoken to enter my conscious mind. I let or give space to the ideas in my heart and soul. When I grant a thought access into my consciousness, I welcome its presence...

Call for Nominations

It's time to elect a new ADL Board of Trustees...

We encourage you to consider if you feel called to lead our ministry forward and what wisdom and talents you might bring to the table to share with others.

- Have you been an ADL minister in good standing for at least 5 years?
- Do you endeavor to live in accordance with the principles of Divine Love as taught by ADL?
- Do you have time in your life to commit to serving on the Board of Trustees?

The Board of Trustees will consist of seven (7) ministers.

If this opportunity aligns with your desire to be of service through ADL, please submit your bio and photo before Monday, May 15th to:

office@allianceofdivinelove.org or
 Alliance of Divine Love
 P.O. Box 238
 Flat Rock, North Carolina 28731
