

Scholarship Application

“Be Present, Be Humble, Be Kind”

Our scholarship program supports the performing arts. In addition to cultivating students' well-being and building their character through kindness, we aim to inspire them to pursue their dreams by providing lessons and performance opportunities. Together, we can help individuals recognize the importance of supporting talented students who desire lessons in the performing arts.

The following requirements must be met to qualify for a scholarship in the arts:

- 3 years old and up
- Meets the income criteria
- Demonstrates a desire to pursue an arts education

Required Documentation:

- Application completed and signed
- A copy of the guardian's latest federal tax return (or two months' worth of pay stubs)
- An explanation of why the student wants to pursue the arts in a letter or video
- An email from a school teacher, church leader, or another adult leader in the child's life to info@101010talent.org
